Repository and Portal to Good Practices and Resources in Grey
Literature

- ✓ The GreyGuide was launched in 2013 as a collaborative effort between GreyNet International and CNR-ISTI (NeMIS Lab), Pisa, Italy.
- ✓ This year GreyGuide celebrates 5 years of work aimed at achieving results in line with the needs of a diverse, international grey literature community adhering to Open Science guiding principles.
- ✓ The GreyGuide provides a unique resource in the field of grey literature that is long awaited and is in continuous evolution both as regards the repository and the portal and will come to serve as GreyNet's web access portal.

Literature

This year activities dealing with the GreyGuide have focused on

- upgrading the new version of its Portal;
- designing a new portal for the GreyForum Series enabling access to material produced by the speakers;
- including an ORCID metadata field in the BIO Collection in the GreyGuide Repository;
- including a DOI metadata field for GL-Conference Papers in the GreyGuide Repository (Work in Progress).
